OCTaxPAC Endorses Anaheim City Council Candidate Jordan Brandman

LAKE FOREST, Calif.— The Orange County Taxpayers Association Political Action Committee (OCTaxPAC) is proud to endorse candidate Jordan Brandman for the 2012 Anaheim City Council election. Mr. Brandman is a long-time member of OCTax.

"We are excited to support Jordan Brandman for Anaheim City Council. We are confident that Jordan will continue to steer the city in the right direction and will protect the taxpayers of Anaheim," said Reed Royalty, a member of the Board of OCTaxPAC. "We believe that Jordan will continue to gain momentum in this highly contested race."

Currently, Mr. Brandman is Director of External Affairs for the Orange County Clerk Recorder Department and has a proven track record of involvement in tax issues at the local and state level.

The Orange County Taxpayers Association (OCTax) is the taxpayers' advocate on many public policy issues in Orange County. OCTax was co-founded in 1986 by Reed Royalty, who is still serves as its President. Its mission is to ensure that taxes and tax-supported programs are fair, understandable, cost-effective, and good for the economy. OCTaxPAC is a separate organization that is sponsored by OCTax.
