

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 6, 2011

CONTACT: Samantha Fitzgerald
949-292-0141 (cell)

OCTax Releases Nominees for “Roses and Radishes” Awards

LAKE FOREST, Calif.— The Orange County Taxpayers Association (OCTax) has released the list of “finalists” for its inaugural “Roses, Radishes and the Royalty Awards” dinner tomorrow night to be held at the Disney’s Grand Californian Hotel & Spa at 5:30 PM.

There will be three sets of awards present at the event: Rose Awards to those individuals or organizations that have been friends to taxpayers in the previous year, Radish Awards to those individuals or organizations that have not been friends to the taxpayers, and the Royalty Award to that individual or organization that is singled out as establishing a legacy of service to the taxpayer.

The OCTax is releasing the nine “finalists” for the ‘Rose’ awards. From this list the Rose Awards recipients will be selected: Supervisor John Moorlach; Sheriff Sandra Hutchens; Anaheim Enterprise Zone Legislative Sponsors- Senators Bob Huff and Lou Correa & Assemblyman Jose Solorio; Association of California Cities-Orange County; Jack Dean, founder of “Pension Tsunami” blog; Orange County Transportation Authority; Michelle Steel, Vice-Chair of the Board of Equalization; City of Costa Mesa; and Segerstrom Center for the Arts.

All award recipients will be announced at tomorrow’s dinner. Approximately 300 guests are expected to attend.

The Orange County Taxpayers Association (OCTax) is the taxpayers’ advocate on many public policy issues in Orange County. OCTax was founded in 1986 by Reed Royalty, who is still serves as its President.

-###-